Acknowledgement of Country

Ruah Community Services acknowledges and respects the traditional owners of the land, the first people of this country, on which we work. We pay our respects to their culture, their Elders past and present and to their emerging leaders.

Foreward

Kaya Wandjoo “Hello, Welcome”

It is with great pleasure that we are relaunching the Aboriginal Resource Directory for 2023. This resource directory is produced to support Aboriginal people’s access to services that operate in the Perth community. It is free to download and available electronically on our website ruah.org.au.

We acknowledge the great contribution that many of the organisations make to the Perth community. Ruah Community Services makes no claims regarding the quality of services provided by organisations listed in this directory. Readers should make their own assessment of the relevance of each service to their own needs and research services outside of this directory.

Every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this directory is as accurate as possible. If any incorrect information or additions are required, please email us at connecting@ruah.org.au and we will investigate the error.

We will be conducting rolling updates of the directory to keep it as up to date as possible. These will be found on the website and marked by a version number. Please make sure to check the website regularly.

About Ruah Community Services

We are all better off, as a community, as a society, if we are all connected. Ruah Community Services is committed to empowering our clients to make meaningful changes in their lives through the provision of quality support services. This resource directory is just one of the ways we engage with the Aboriginal community to improve quality of life and access to support services.

Ruah is committed to enhancing service delivery to our Aboriginal Community. By listening, networking and exploring new ways of working together we are able to provide appropriate, respectful, effective and culturally secure services.
